DRI Inaugurates Community Water Center at remote village in Gurugram

The DRI Udaan Community Water Center (CWC) was inaugurated by Ms. Anandiata Pahwa, Head CSR- Initiatives, DRI on Wednesday, 06 February, 2019 at Shekhupur Majri village, Gurgaon. The inauguration was done in the presence of Ms. Shushmita Singha, President, MA. My Anchor Foundation, village sarpanch and community members. This CWC is providing RO (500 Liter Per Hour and Chillar) chilled water to the around 300 households/village where the TDS level is very high. People were suffering from water born diseases in the village. This CWC aims to reduce health problems and access to safe and purified drinking water which will improve quality of water and health conditions. Four similar CWCs are functional in Kaduki village, Alwar, Chillarki, Halliaki, and Gugana Village, Gurugram.
